The letter R at the head of all prescriptions is derived from the Latin recipe, the imperative meaning "take." The little dart over the tail of the R is the symbol of Jove, the Latin god of Jupiter, and invests the writer with his authority—by the power of Jupiter. Therefore the sign properly translated reads: "By Jupiter you take this."

A WEDDING IN HIGH SOCIETY.

Beautiful Weather is Vouchsafed for the Celebration of the Jones-Schaeffer Nuptials.

Probably the most beautiful wedding which has occurred in Daytona in many years was the one solemnized on Wednesday at high noon at the magnificent residence of Mr. and Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett.

The contracting parties to this, the most solemn yet joyous event of life, were Miss Adele Schaeffer, daughter of the late Geo. Schaeffer, of Baltimore, and Eugene Berkey Jones, of New York, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Jones, of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Arnold, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church. To the strains of Lohengrin's beautiful wedding march, played by Miss Della Paine, of Rockledge, the couple entered the room where the ceremony was performed under an archway of vines, studded with beautiful Easter and water lilies, after which, amid the congratulations of the host of friends present, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Huston and Miss Evelyn Clark.

S. H. Peck, a maternal uncle of the bride, gave the bride away. Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett was the matron of honor; Miss Bertha Peck Schaeffer was the maid of honor and Miss Mabel Cummer, of Jacksonville, and Miss Ellen Paine, of Minneapolis, were the bridesmaids. Two cousins of the bride, Misses Helen Peck Blodgett and Daisy A. Peck, were the flower girls; the pages were Delos A. Blodgett, Jr., and Wm. H. Peck. George Berkey, of Grand Rapids, a cousin of the groom, was best man.

The bride, a sweet-looking and beautiful young lady, was attired in a gown of white chiffon and point lace, the bridal veil worn being an heirloom highly prized by the family. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and orange blossoms, which was afterward divided among the maids.

The dress worn by the maid of honor was white and Nile green crepe de chine, while those worn by the bridesmaids were of white crepe de chine and they also wore coronation veils of white tulle.

Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party. The bride cut the cake, which contained a ring and two coins; the first was secured by Miss Bertha Schaeffer, the two coins being secured by Miss Mabel Cummer and Mr. Berkey.

The bridal party, amidst a shower of rice and rose leaves, boarded the afternoon train en route for Pinehurst, N. C., where they will remain a few days and then proceed north.

The presents were very numerous and costly, evidencing the extensive number of friends this popular young couple have made. Over one thousand and invitations were issued, many going abroad.

In the evening a number of invited guests appeared at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett and furnished delightful music, vocal and instrumental, for the bridal party. Rugs and furniture were removed, and until the wee sma' hours beauty and chivalry commingled in Terpsichorean pleasures.

Uncle Sam Challenges Grant Ferris.

To T. B. Collins, Captain of the Grant Ferris:

Sunday's race makes the backers of the Uncle Sam more sure that she can beat the Grant Ferris in a deep water race. We have run a shoal water race, now we want one in deep water, with a week's time to get ready. We do not ask any man to run his boat for fun; we will run for $100 a side for a race not under ten miles. We were beaten fairly Sunday but we can beat you in deep water.

Wm. McCoy,
Fred Sunderman.

Vanderbilt Will Race No More.

W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., who made a new world's record of 0:39 over the Ormond-Daytona beach course a few weeks ago, will never race in an automobile again. His physicians have forbidden it, and it is hinted that heart trouble has been brought on by the young millionaire from constant speeding. The machine which broke the world's record was a 90 h. p. Mercedes, and it has been sold by Mr. Vanderbilt to Bernard M. Shanley, president of the New Jersey Automobile and Motor Club. The machine was sent to Newark, Mr. Shanley's home, on Friday last. The records made by Mr. Shanley's new car are as follows: one mile, 0:39; five miles, 3:39 2-5; ten miles, 6:50; twenty miles, 17:02; thirty miles, 24:11; forty miles, 33:52 2-5; fifty miles, 49:00 2-5.
